ARCHERY VENUES

NFAA Easton Yankton Archery Center

800 Archery Lane, Yankton, SD, 57078

Yankton, South Dakota is the home of National Field Archery Association Foundation, and the first of the Easton Foundations Archery Centers. Situated on over 130 acres; the NFAA Easton Yankton Archery Center includes three outdoor field ranges, a 3D range, two FITA ranges, two 90m indoor ranges, two classrooms, a fitness studio, an art studio and the NFAA Foundation Archery Museum.

In 2007, Yankton beat out several Midwest cities to become the new headquarters' of the National Field Archery Association (NFAA). The original plan called for a 4,000 square foot office building to house the NFAA staff. In partnership with the NFAA Foundation, the Easton Foundations saw the opportunity to add on to the NFAA Headquarters and create a multi-million-dollar, state-of-the-art archery training facility. With incentives from the City of Yankton, the county and the state of South Dakota; the low cost made it impossible for the Easton Foundation to refuse. With that, the project grew to over 20,000 square feet.

In 2011 and again in 2017, the NFAA Foundation broke ground again with two separate expansion that added a combined 50,000 square feet and extended the building to include the World's first indoor 90-meter range and an archery distribution warehouse.
